

America's Finest Charter School Homeless Education Policy

America's Finest Charter School has a homeless liaison for homeless children and youth. Our liaison may be reached at 619-694-4809.

America's Finest Charter School agrees to implement the following policy to ensure that all children and youth who are homeless receive a free appropriate public education and are given opportunity to succeed in school, consistent with the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act and requirements of submitting the Consolidated Application for accessing federal categorical funding.

America's Finest Charter School will ensure that children and youth who are homeless are free from discrimination, segregation, and harassment.

Information regarding this policy, including the educational rights of children and youth identified as homeless will be distributed to all students upon enrollment and once during the school year. This policy is also available in our AFCS Board of Directors board binder.

Definitions

Children and youth experiencing homelessness means children and youth who are otherwise legally entitled to or eligible for a free public education and who lack a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence, including:

- ❖ Children and youth who are sharing the housing of other persons due to loss of housing, economic hardship, or a similar reason; are living in motels, hotels, campgrounds, or trailer parks due to a lack of alternative adequate accommodations; are living in emergency or transitional shelters; are abandoned in hospitals; or are awaiting placement in foster care.
- ❖ Children and youth who have a primary nighttime residence that is a private or public place not designed for or ordinarily used as a regular sleeping accommodation for human beings.
- ❖ Children and youth who are living in a car, park, public space, abandoned building, substandard housing, bus or train station, or similar setting.

Migratory children and youth who are living in a situation described above.

A child or youth will be considered to be homeless for as long as he or she is in a living situation described above.

- ❖ Unaccompanied youth means a youth not in the physical custody of a parent or guardian, who meets the definition of homeless as defined above. The more general term youth also includes unaccompanied youth.
- ❖ Enroll and enrollment means attending school and participating fully in all school activities.
- ❖ Immediate means without delay. Parent means a person having legal or physical custody of a child or youth.

Adopted June 20, 2018

- ❖ Local liaison is the staff person designated by America's Finest Charter School as the person responsible for carrying out the duties assigned to the local homeless education liaison by the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act.

Identification

Children and youth who qualify as homeless in America's Finest Charter School will be identified.

Data will be collected on the number of children and youth experiencing homelessness in America's Finest Charter School; where they are living; their academic achievement (including state and local assessments); and the reasons for any enrollment delays or interruptions in their education.

School Selection

Each child and youth enrolled at America's Finest Charter School identified as homeless has the right to remain enrolled. Services that are required to be provided, including transportation to and from the America's Finest Charter School and services under federal and other programs, will not be considered in determining feasibility.

Enrollment

Enrollment may not be denied or delayed due to the lack of any document normally required for enrollment, including:

- ❖ Proof of residency
- ❖ Transcripts/school records (America's Finest Charter School must contact the student's previous school to obtain school records. Initial placement of students whose records are not immediately available can be made based on the student's age and information gathered from the student, parent, and previous schools or teachers.)
  - Immunizations or immunization/health/medical/physical records (If necessary, the school must refer students to the local liaison to assist with obtaining immunizations and/or immunization and other medical records.)
- ❖ Proof of guardianship
- ❖ Birth certificate
- ❖ Unpaid school fees
- ❖ Lack of clothing that conforms to dress code
- ❖ Any factor related to the student's living situation

Unaccompanied youth must be enrolled immediately in school. They may either enroll themselves or be enrolled by a parent, non-parent caretaker, older sibling, or local liaison.

Transportation

If transportation is offered at America's Finest Charter School, parents and unaccompanied youth will be informed of their right to transportation before they are enrolled. At a parent's or unaccompanied youth's request, said transportation if offered will be provided for the entire time the child or youth attends America's Finest Charter School, including during pending dispute.

Services

Children and youth experiencing homelessness will be provided services comparable to services offered to other students in America's Finest Charter School, which may include:

❖ Transportation

Title I, Part A services - Children and youth identified as homeless are automatically eligible for Title I, Part A services

Educational services for which the student meets eligibility criteria, including special education and related services and programs for English language learners

Vocational and technical education programs

Gifted and talented programs

❖ Before- and after-school programs

Free meals - On the day a child or youth identified as homeless enrolls in school, America's Finest Charter School must submit the student's name to its food service program coordinator for immediate eligibility, if a food service program is utilized by the school.

When applying any standing policy regarding tardiness or absences, any tardiness or absence related to a child or youth's living situation will be excused.

Disputes

If a dispute arises over any issue covered in this policy, the child or youth experiencing homelessness will be admitted immediately to America's Finest Charter School pending final resolution of the dispute. The student will also have the rights of a student who is homeless to all appropriate educational services, transportation, free meals, and Title I, Part A, services while the dispute is pending.

America's Finest Charter School will provide the parent or unaccompanied youth with a written explanation of its decision and the right to appeal and will refer the parent or youth to the local liaison immediately. The local liaison will ensure that the student is enrolled at America's Finest Charter School and is receiving other services to which he or she is entitled and will resolve the dispute as expeditiously as possible. The parent or unaccompanied youth will be given every opportunity to participate meaningfully in the resolution of the dispute. The local liaison will keep records of all disputes in order to determine whether particular issues or schools are repeatedly delaying or denying the enrollment of children and youth identified as homeless. The parent, unaccompanied youth, or school district may appeal the America's Finest Charter School's decision as provided in America's Finest Charter School's formal dispute resolution process.

Training

The local liaison will conduct training regarding Title X requirements and sensitivity/awareness activities for all staff of America's Finest Charter School.

Coordination

The local liaison will coordinate with and seek support from the local district and county coordinator for the Education of Homeless Children and Youth, public and private service providers in the community, housing and placement agencies, local liaisons in neighboring districts, and other organizations and agencies. Coordination will include conducting outreach and training through those agencies. Both public and private agencies will be encouraged to support the local liaison and America's Finest Charter School in implementing this policy.
